Note: a) From the June 19, 1998 edition of the Green Bay Compass (Diocesan newspaper) on the occasion of Father Francis' 60 years as a priest:nnWABENO PASTOR ENJOYED DISTINGUISHED MILITARY CAREERnnIf you look for Fr. Francis Geigel these days, you'll find him enjoying his retirement fishing, playing cards, and visiting with neighbors and friends from his parish in Wabeno. This comes as no surprise to those who know him.n"What has always impressed me about him," says Fr. Mike Carroll, a second cousin to Fr. Geigel, "is his love for people. He has a great rapport with people."nAs he reflects on his sixty years in the priesthood, Fr. Geigel can't remember when he did not want to be a priest. Born in St. Nazianz, the ninth of ten children, he entered the seminary after eighth grade and completed his high school education at Sacred Heart in Manitowoc. He was influenced in his vocation by his older sister, Sr. Adjutora, who had entered a convent before he was born, and another of his sisters who also became a nun. Fr. Geigel received a B.A. in philosophy at St. Francis Seminary in 1934 and M.A. in church history in 1938. He was ordained May 28, 1938.nMuch of Fr. Geigel's ministry was spent as a chaplain, first in the Civilian Conservation Corps, next in the U.S. Army Air Corps, and then in the U.S. Air Force.n"Through the Air Force I saw so much of the world," he recalls. "I had never traveled much before that time, but then half of my years as chaplain were spent overseas, in the Philippines, France, Germany, Spain, and in Alaska, which at that time was considered overseas."nFr. Geigel reflects on his military career with quiet satisfaction. "I was stationed in France after World War II. It was at the beginning of NATO, and there were servicemen from the United States, Great Britain, the Netherlands, Canada, France, and Belgium, all working together on the same base outside of Paris. We often celebrated Mass together too, because not all the nationalities had chaplains there."n"Then in Germany, we lived on a base where the German Luftwaffe was housed previously. When I said Mass, twenty or so townspeople would come, in addition to the soldiers. After Mass I talked with the German people and translated for them what I had said to the American soldiers. It pleased me that I could speak the language well enough to do that."nOver the next ten years, Fr. Geigel was assigned to Air Force bases throughout the U.S. from Oregon to Florida to Washington, D.C. and more. Upon retiring with the rank of lieutenant colonel, he was appointed pastor of St. Anthony Parish, Marinette, then as pastor of St. Ambrose Parish, Wabeno. He also later served as administrator at Laona and Newald and at St. Joan of Arc Parish in Goodman.nFr. Geigel has seen changes in the way priests operate over the years. "They don't pay much attention to rules and regulations anymore," he said. "It makes it difficult to concelebrate, because sometimes the wording and other things are changed."nAs he considers the shortage of priests today, Fr. Geigel sees having more deacons or lay ministers work as administrators of the parishes as the solution. Priests would become "circuit riders, like in the early days of our country. They would visit several parishes, administering the sacrament every week or two."nAlthough he suggests it, Fr. Geigel will not be "circuit riding." He admits his health has slowed him down, For now, he's content to go fishing and spend time with the people who are dear to him.nnFR. GEIGEL BIOGRAPHY:nFr. Francis Gerald Geigel, the 9th of 10 children of Joseph and Anna (Milhaupt) Geigel, was born on February 6, 1912. He is the cousin of Fr. Michael Carroll.nHOME PARISH: St. NazianznEDUCATION: St. Francis Seminary, Milwaukee B.A., M.A. Ordained by Bp. Paul Rhode, St.

Francis Xavier Cathedral, Green Bay on May 28, 1938.nASSOCIATE PASTOR: Annunciation, Green Bay; Sacred Heart, Oshkosh.nPASTOR: St. Anthony, Marinette; St. Ambrose, Wabeno.nADMINISTRATOR: St. Leonard, Laona and St. Hubert, Newald; St. Joan of Arc, Goodman. Retired March 15, 1977.nOTHER SERVICE TO DIOCESE: Assistant Chancellor and secretary to Bp. Paul Rhode, with additional duties as chaplain of the Civilian Conservation Corps camps at Mountain and the missions of Wabeno and Lakewood. Other service; U.S. Army chaplain. Separated from active service with the rank of Lieutenant colonel.

St. Nazianz
(Mary Margaret Stahl)

Death: 17 Mar 1943
Clarks Mills

Note: ^{a)} Died of a heart attack. Fell over near the stove in the kitchen.
Bought their farm from George Schmidt at an auction for $3000.00.
Peter Geigel and Christina Kaltenbrun were attendants for John and Mary Geigel's wedding.
John Geigel was a cousin of Catherine Schwoerer's mother.
John never had a middle name.
He used to sit on a rocker in the n.e. corner of the kitchen near a big black cast iron range. He worked the land, farming all his life. He also sold "cord wood" from their land. In the 1936 atlas at the library, it is recorded that they owned 200 acres in Manitowoc County. He could never find his birth certificate registered at the court house. This was very common in those days, because of transportation and the language barrier. Records were not required until 1907.
John was also a carpenter at home. He built the washstand that stood in their kitchen. He also made tables.

Death: 24 Apr 1902
Township of Cato
Cause of death: stroke (appoplexy)

Note: ^{a)} Came to America July 24, 1867 on the vessel "Ocean", arrived in port at Baltimore, Maryland from port of Bremen, Germany. Their vessel tickets listed their nationality as Bohemia, and their destination as Ohio. Tickets are for Matthias, Katharine, and Joseph. Eva Geigel also arrived on the same ship, could be siblings, but not 100% sure. We believe Matthias & Katharine settled on the farm which was later the Leonard Tienor farm, now in the township of Cato. Matthias and Katherina are buried at St. Mary's cemetery at Clarks Mills. Their tombstone is written in German. Geb. = geboren = born. Gest. = gestorben = died. Alter = age. Jahre = year. In the 1870 census of Manitowoc County, Cato township, there is a family listed with the last name of Kigger, consisting of Mathias, Catherine, Joseph and John with the right ages for the Geigel family. The census people probably just put the name down the way it sounded when they heard it. From Der Nord Westen, 08 May 1902: We must belatedly report that Mathias Geigel died suddenly in Clarks Mills on 24 Apr. Mr. Geigel felt perfectly well all day and retired. Shortly afterward he cried out loudly and his wife asked what was wrong, to which he replied that he had had a terrible dream. A few minutes later Mrs. Geigel directed another question at her husband, but there was no answer and it was found that he was no longer breathing and life was gone. A stroke had killed him. Mathias Geigel reached the age of 74 years. 4 mos., was born in Bohemia, came to America about 36 yrs. ago and settled in Clarks Mills where he has lived ever since. He is survived by his sorrowing widow and 2 (should be 3) children. His funeral was held Mon. last week.
