Note: <sup>a)</sup> Baptismal sponsors: Charles Vondrachek and Marie ForeytnnCharles was not given a middle name when baptized. Cyril was his confirmation name. He went to St. Mary's School in Reedsville, where years later, his children attended the same school. Each winter he was transferred to Grimms Public School. The two schools never went at the same pace - so he had to make an adjustment every year.nnOn March 18, 1938, he was severely injured in an accident on the east end of Reedsville. He was driving a gas truck for the Reedsville Co-op at the time. He had both legs broken and was put in a body cast up to the chest with steel plates in his legs. His daughter, Catherine, used to sit on the cast up on his chest to visit. Dr. Cary and Arnold "Lummie" March, gave Veronica and the four children rides to Manitowoc to visit him in the hospital. He was hospitalized for five months to the day when he finally got to go home. Anne was born while he was there, and he had undergone three surgeries. After he was home two weeks, he had to go back because one leg stiffened up.nn"History of Reedsville Book" has a picture of the Charles C. Vondrachek home when it was a tavern on the north west corner of Manitowoc and 6th Streets. The home is now at 609 Menasha Street, next to St. Mary's Rectory, where the family was always neighbors of the priest.nnCharles wound the church clock for 33 years. In his retirement years, he continued to help out at church, like taking down Christmas trees and distributing missalettes. Charles helped make this family tree possible by helping with the knowledge of his ancestry and interpreting the Bohemian on tombstones, documents, etc.nnCharles C.
